GRAND CELEBRATION.

People From all Parts of the County
Came to Marion to Celebrate the Fourth.

The Fourth of July celebration given by the business men of the city was a decided success and they are to be congratulated.

The Marion Cornet Band certainly deserve credit for furnishing such splendid music and lots of it.

Every one seemed to think the balloon ascension would be a dream but it was a reality.

One of the most interesting features of the day was the ball game between Marion and Providence resulting in a score of 15 to 1 in Marion's favor.

From the amount of confetti thrown one would think he was attending a street fair.

A very large crowd attended the celebration and partook of the business men's and Marion in general hospitality. The crowd was variously estimated at from 2000 to 3000 and all were orderly and well-behaved.

All Explained Now.

Last week the Crittenden Record-Press came out at noon instead of after six o'clock as usual. The foreman, Cleveland Stone got the forms made up and had everything ready a full half day ahead of time. This had never occurred before although the "Press" and "Record-Press" had had a long and varied career. Of course it caused comment and as Cleve had celebrated his 23rd birthday and first wedding anniversary last week we did not think anything of it. Some did however and said "Cleve is getting ready to shoot fire-crackers and take a day off July fourth, and maybe go up in the balloon." Others surmised that he wanted to attend the ball game and see Marion wipe some amateur team off the earth. He claimed himself that he only wanted to get caught up so he could "work his garden Saturday." Sunday afternoon the matter was explained fully when it became known that Dr. Clement and the stern had left at his home a beautiful little girl of twelve pounds weight. Cleve smiled and said he was delighted.

The little lady was christened "Mary Rebecca" for her two grandmothers. She and her mother are getting along nicely, and to see Cleve smile you would know at once at a glance why the boys call him "catfish."

Kentucky Girl to be Hostess.

Denver, Colo., July 3.—The hostess of the Democratic National Convention will be Mrs. John E. Osborne, wife of the Governor of Wyoming. She was a former Kentucky belle and is not more than twenty years of age. She is a bride of a year. No Democrat in Denver has a higher regard for W. J. Bryan than Mrs. Osborne, who is truly Democratic, although she declares she is not interested in woman suffrage or any other political subject.

She admires Bryan however, although, by reason of his close acquaintance with her husband, he gave away the secret of their betrothal. When the commoner was touring Kentucky he suddenly turned to Urey Woodson, secretary of the National Committee, and told him, when they reached Princeton Ky., to hunt out the girl John Osborne was to wed.

Woodson had not heard of the betrothal, but as Princeton is not so large, his task was not hard one and by evening Princeton now Lena Smith was to become the first lady of Wyoming. On their way West Bryan met the happy couple at Lincoln, and Mrs. Osborne forgave him.

Mrs. Osborne is a niece of J. Bell

Kevil of this city and a first cousin of Miss Mabel Kevil.

Letter From Louisiana.

Tioga, La., July 3, 1908.

Dear Editor

I thought that perhaps something from these parts would be interesting to some of your readers. This being my first attempt you should not expect much of me, but nevertheless I shall endeavor to give a brief description of our little southern town.

This is a saw-mill town six miles north of Alexandria, La., on Iron Mountain R. R. Founded in 1890 by Mr. J. M. Nagent a noted saw-mill operator of this district, born and reared here in old Rapides Parish and a purely self made man, rose to prominence by strict attention to business. Mr. Nagent accumulated quite a little fortune and was recently elected the State Senate from this district on the democratic ticket, but did not serve in his office, the next operators connected with the saw mill here was the J. Lewis Lumber Co.—A. Lewis manager and in succession the Tioga Lumber Co., succeeded in 1900 by the present owners the Lee Lumber Co.

Mr. O. H. Cooper local manager for this plant, has been burned out twice, the first burn was in 1895 and was a total burn out, the second was in 1906 and it was only a partial burn out which has been replaced with a better plant than the old one, the difference is as follows: the old plant was equipped with circular and pony mill and the present plant is equipped with circular and band saws.

We have a good electric light plant and the mill and town are supplied with water through pipes leading from a drilled well on the hill above the town. We have two churches, Baptist and Methodist also a good school building, a Free Mason hall, Woodmen hall and society is above the average for a saw mill town.

The financial crash which fell upon the country last year of course retarded business somewhat here as well as elsewhere, but after putting every thing on an average as regards demand and supply, I presume the Lee Lumber Co has treated its employees quite fair or as much so as reasonably lay in their power to do.

Owing to such high water in Red river crops have been cut very short, but some of the cotton fields would look rather long to we Kentucky people.

To my surprise on my way down here, I saw at Olla, La., L. C. Nunn, an old Crittenden county boy, who is cashier of the Olla National Bank. I do not know of only two of the old Crittenden county boys in La. but I am proud to say they are both to the front.

Well Mr. Jenkins if this is worthy of notice I shall try again some time and want to say the old paper seems dearer to me than ever before, it is always a warm friend.

I want to say before I close, that yesterday a large crowd of we young people went on a fishing spree had real good luck and gathered a plenty of magnolia blossoms and what we term as the chigger in Kentucky is known as the red bug here, and they are busy to-day.

Hoping this will find all the readers of the Record-Press in good health. I will ring off.

Respectfully,

Roy Woody.

Governor Wilson And The Farmers.

Under the above heading the Lexington, (Ky.) Gazette prints the following editorial.

Governor Wilson has raised the serious question as to whether the movement of the tobacco growers is an honest sincere effort on the part of the men engaged in this industry to secure a fair price for their product or whether it is the scheme of shrewd, ambitious leaders to satisfy their own greed for gain and their ambition for power.

This new issue as to the tobacco situation was raised by the governor in his speech at Louisville at a meeting of the Law and Order League. It is an issue that cannot be ignored. It is evident that the governor does not believe that the organizations of the farmers have been undertaking and carried out for proper purposes and in good faith. He takes the position that they pretend to fight and they are really dominated by unworthy men, and their real purpose is to not benefit the farmers, but to give profit and power to a few ambitious leaders.

If the governor is right the Society of Equity and all of the organizations of farmers for advancing the price of tobacco ought to be stamped out and vigorous measures to be taken to this end. But the first requisite to this course is the positive proof of the justice of the charges made. The evidence upon which they are based ought to be produced. If the governor is right he ought to convict those whom he accuses at the court of public opinion if he cannot convict them of violation of the law. If the governor is wrong he has done a gross injustice to many of the very best citizens of Kentucky. He has made grave charges not only against the whole body of farmers, but against their leaders. Whether right or wrong, as the matter now stands, he puts himself in the attitude of antagonism to every purpose of the Society of Equity and the organizations of the tobacco growers. He condemns not merely night riding, but the whole movement. He condemns not only night riders, but the whole body of the membership and the leaders of the farmers' organization.

The Gazette does not believe that the evidence now before the public justifies his position. We believe that he has disqualified himself for rendering any service toward a solution of one of the most important problems that now confront the state of Kentucky, until he can show beyond all question that his insinuations and accusations can be justified by actual facts.

The governor says that his soldiers have killed sixteen night riders. He says he knows the leader of the night riders. He claims to be possessed of the details of their organization, including the oath that binds them together. After making these statements he goes farther with insinuations and charges that involve every man with any voice in the movement for higher prices for tobacco. His attitude is made all the more significant by what he claims to know.

The governor must make good or find himself in a most humiliating position. He must capture the leader of the night riders and his lieutenants. He must expose this oath-bound organization. He must give the names of the dead night riders killed by his soldiers with details of the fights in which they were slain. He must also make good in his attack on the integrity of the organized farmers and their leaders or stand before the state not only humiliated but discredited.

Put Yourself In The Grower's Place.

Miss Alice Lloyd, of Dover, Ky., whose short address at the recent meeting of the "Law and Order League" at McAuley's Theatre, in Louisville, created such a sensation, and which made the members of that "league" look like thirty cents" and some of them feel like counterfeit copper, has a series of letters published in the Louisville Times. These letters contain many pungent paragraphs which should furnish food for thought among people who sincerely believe in the "golden rule." In the first of these letters, published in last Saturday's Times, after reviewing the conditions of the fight between the tobacco trust and the growers, the following is a sample of some of the pertinent questions she asks, but which will hardly be answered by Dr. Powell, Governor Wilson or other leaders of the League:

"If you are a lawyer, put yourself in the position occupied by the tobacco grower. Have a client demand your services, and, having received them, give you such a fee as pleases him—taking care only that you subsist in such fashion as to be able to represent him when next he needs an advocate. If you are an editor, let your readers fix their own price upon your paper and you advertisers take your space at their own figures. If you are a minister, let some church demand your services, and when they have been given decide without consulting you what you are to receive. If you are a physician, give your skill in ministry to the sick, and then accept without question the compensation offered you. If you are a merchant, let your customers help themselves from your stock and then hand you over the counter such returns as they see fit to make—and remember you cannot help it—that or no sale. This is precisely the position in which the tobacco trust has put the tobacco growers. Now, lawyers, preachers, physicians, merchants, editors might be found willing to do business on just this plan. They would be very popular with the trade, but would they not demoralize your business or profession, and would they not reduce the scale of living, not only in the individual family, but throughout your guild? How would you meet such a condition?"—Farmers Home Journal.

Are you a member of a farmer's organization? If not join something else. We would prefer to join that triumphant army of 35,000 patriotic Kentuckians who are to-day marching in the Equity ranks in this state, but if not convenient join something else, and let your "mite" and influence go to help in the fight against the organized enemies of the farmer.

This is no time for bickering among the farming element. When you attack any other farmers' organization you are tearing down your own. The fellow who goes about "knocking" is not fit to belong to any, and is a tool in the hands of the enemy.

"Equityite" and "Unionite" are synonymous terms for "night rider" in the vocabulary of many high in authority and the farmer is not given credit for sincerity or good motives in organizing, to oppose those who would reduce us to a servile condition equal to that of despotic Russia.

It has been charged in many sections of the state that the farmers' organizations are backing up the night riders and abetting them to escape justice when brought to trial. We feel that the farmer of Crittenden county stands for Equity and justice all the way down the line. And if the alleged night riders who have been indicted in this county are given a fair, square deal, and not persecuted instead of prosecuted, and not railroaded through the courts as has been charged in some sections of the state, Equity and Union will say amen to the verdict. But the people will demand fair play, and would not endorse means that might deprive any man of a fair and impartial trial, there by sending innocent men to the penitentiary to appease the wrath of a few trust magnates who have felt their grip gradually loosened until the Kentucky tobacco raiser is now free.

The next payroll for Kentucky's army of occupation will round up about $50,000 to be borne by the taxpayers of the state, in less than eight months of the reign of Augustus the First. Many brilliant campaigns have been planned and executed. Sixteen Riders have been slain, and so effective has been the work of the soldiers that fifteen of them were so completely annihilated that not a trace of them can be found. For like Moses no one knows their place of burial. The other one seems to have been killed by a citizens posse, in the Hopkinsville raid. But the coroners jury was more liberal and gave the military the credit for the death of the old negro in the same city. Let us be liberal and render unto Caesar such things as belong to Caesar.

The conviction of Dr. Champion for night riding in the Birmingham raid, will be heralded by a subsized press as another victory against the Riders, when in reality it was but the out come of race prejudice and two years ago would have been called a mild case of whitecapping.

Ninety-nine per cent of Crittenden county tobacco crop for 1908 has already been pooled. The other one per cent is ready to pool as soon as the books are open again. The Equity pool known here as the District Stemming Association has cleaned up her decks and has not a pound left of three years crops, but is waiting to take on board this year's crop, take it to people who are waiting for it to grow, giving us in return fair treatment, good prices, and quick returns. These are three things which make the farmer happy.

Big Ollie James Says Kentucky Is Going Democratic.

Lincoln, Neb., July 7.—In his conference with Bryan to-day James renounced all claims on the vice presidency. He assured the Nebraskan that his nomination for vice-president would not be wise, as Kentucky is going Democratic anyhow, and the vice-presidency should be used to strengthen the ticket. James says Kern and Mitchell are both strong in Kentucky.

James is bitter toward Judge Parker on account of the Cleveland resolution. "If Parker wants to clear the field of mortuary literature let him write his own obituary, he is dead anyhow," said the big Kentuckian. James will speak at the Bryan banquet here to-night. Bryan made him take lunch at Fairview.

Rumors That a Caldwell County Farmer Is Missing, Troops Sent.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 3.—Some of the soldiers who had been stationed in Trigg county came here last night and left, it is believed, for Cobb, Caldwell county, where it is likely a permanent camp will be established. The latest depredation in Western Kentucky is reported to have taken place in the territory between Cerulean Springs and Cobb.

There is a persistent rumor that a young farmer near the Caldwell county line was taken out of his home on the night of May 17 by night riders and has not been heard from since. One theory is that he was murdered, as he had previously been threatened. A barn in the same neighborhood was destroyed by fire while the owner was away. It is reported that the people of Cobb are much opposed to having soldiers stationed there, and that they will refuse to sell the camp supplies.

Night Trains Taken off.

Owing to the I. C. giving up their lease on the Tennessee Central, two night trains, one due at 10:13 p. m. north bound, and 4:50 a. m. south bound, have been taken off the run.

These two trains were the Nashville and Chicago limited.

This gives Marion only four passenger trains a day.

Bear at Large; Man Missing.

Princeton, Ky., July 2.—Excitement prevails here on account of a large black bear being seen in the woods near Lake Rabbit, one mile north of Princeton. A few days ago a man with a bear passed thru this city, and the bear seen today is supposed to be the one in charge of the man, who when last seen was drunk. The general supposition is that the man was killed and torn to pieces by the bear.

I do not know of a single candidate for any office who is not a strong friend of the Association. Many of the candidates are not members of the Association—because not eligible to membership. And yet some of the gentlemen who are not eligible to membership in the Association, because non-producers of tobacco Association members in Hopkins and Union counties should bear in mind the election in said counties will be held Saturday, July 4th. There is no more important duty appealing to members than this matter of the selection of committeemen. The very best and wisest men from each magisterial district should be chosen to serve the Association. For the county boards elect the Executive Committee and the Executive Committee conducts the colossal affairs of the Association.

Members of the Association should therefore be extremely careful, and extremely impartial, lest they be charged with running the Association into politics. The Association needs the sympathy and support of men of all parties, whether Democrats, Republicans, Independents or Socialists. In this Association are members who belong to all parties. In a private letter to me the other day one of the executive committee stated the true position of the Association, in the following words: "It won't do to run this tobacco Association into politics, for, if the farmers do, it will soon go down. We should always vote for the man best qualified for the place."

Will The Hotel Latham be Closed?

Several times lately we have heard that Hotel Latham is to be closed to-morrow. This should not be. Are our people going to permit a thing like this? A city of 12,000 or 13,000 people without a first class hotel? We guess not. If Mr. Brewer cannot see it to his interest to remain here there must be others who will take hold of the best hotel in the country.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian

Notice to The Tobacco Growers of Crittenden County.

You will observe by examining the constitution and by-laws of the stemmimg district tobacco Association, that each county in said district is requested to select one delegate from each magisterial district to form a county board for the purpose of transacting all business pertaining to the sale of dispositions of our 18,000 lbs. of tobacco. The chair man of said county board according to the constitution will be a member of the executive board of the district at Henderson, therefore I request all tobacco growers to meet in their respective magisterial districts on Saturday, July 25th, 1908, at 2 p.m., and perform this important duty and those who are elected as delegates from the various districts in the county will meet at Marion on the first day of August, to organize a county board. Any competent man residing in your district who is a tobacco grower, is eligible to be a delegate, he is not required to be a member of any other organization other than the stemmimg district tobacco Association and if he has pooled his tobacco that makes him a member of that same magisterial district have two or more voting places, for the benefit of those. I would suggest that the voters of Piney district meet at Iron Hill and the Marion district in which Squire James resides, will meet at tobacco factory near the depot, and Dycusburg district will meet at Frances, Union at Levia, Hurricane at Sheridan, Fords Ferry at their usual voting place, Bells Mines at Rosebud and Squire Postlewait district at the court house.

I would suggest that at each place of meeting that some tobacco grower call the meeting to order and state the object of the meeting then nominate some one for chairman the nominations for delegates will be in order after which the chairman will take the vote and the one receiving the most votes will be your delegate. Hoping this notice will be understood by all tobacco growers and that the delegates elected will have no selfish motives of their own, but the good of the Association at heart only. This notice will not appear in print but once, therefore keep it.

FIVE PERISH IN FIRE

EXPLOSION WRECKS CHICAGO CHEMICAL PLANT.

EMPLOYES TRAPPED IN BASEMENT

Bodies Are Recovered From Building Wrecked by Blowing Up of Chemicals.

Chicago, June 26.—Five bodies have been taken from the ruins of the Pabst Chemical Company's plant, 176-178 Huron street, wrecked by an explosion, and a sixth is reported to have been found. The bodies removed are those of Mrs. Jane Nolan and her four children, Mary, Jennie, Emma and Helen. Twelve women and seven men were severely burned.

A sheet of flames followed the explosion, which occurred in the basement. Employees of the company were trapped at their work in the basement and first and second floors. The third and fourth floors were occupied as living apartments.

The family that perished was on the third floor.

The 12 women burned were at work on the first floor. The explosion threw them from their feet. Their clothes were on fire before they could rise.

The girls rushed to a window and leaped to the street. One man jumped from a second story window. He is dying at the Polyclinic Hospital.

John McDonald, member of the Fire Department, was fatally wounded when engine No. 1 overturned.

Joseph May, 3 years old, 164 Huron street, was dangerously cut by glass. He was playing in the street.

A number of women were caught on the roof of the building. Their clothes were on fire, and they had each other's garments. Friends carried them down a ladder to the roof of a building on the east. They were attended in a neighboring manufacturing plant by police ambulance physicians.

The explosion practically demolished the building. The fire spread so rapidly that employees of the chemical company were on fire before they had recovered from the shock of the concussion.

Edits Cut Off.

The exits to the street were cut off. The men and women fought and struggled to reach the roof.

Melvin and Elsie Best were on the first floor. They were knocked down and burned.

"The fire followed the explosion so quickly that we were wrapped in a sheet of flame," declared Melvin Best.

The girls were carried into the plant of Theodore Koch, barber supplies, adjoining that of the chemical company.

Capt. Ellis Harper Is Killed.

Lebanon, Tenn., June 26.—Capt. Ellis Harper was shot and instantly killed here today by William Sult Harper, it is said, attacked Sult with a pistol.

Sult, who is a Patterson man, it is alleged, wrote an article for a Nashville paper at which Harper, who is a Carmack man, took offense.

Capt. Harper was a picturesque figure during the Civil War and was a noted Confederate raider.

Murdered Man Found in Boxcar.

Bloomington, Ill., June 26.—The body of a murdered man, thought to be John Tighe of Nevada, Mo., was discovered in a Chicago-Alton boxcar in the yards here. There was evidence of a desperate battle. A union card bearing Tighe's name is the only clue to the identity. The man's age was about 35.

The flood is receding rapidly. The gauge at St. Louis marked 23.5 feet Thursday morning, a fall of .3 in the last 24 hours. It will drop 4 in the next 24 hours, according to the forecast.

Fleet Received Orders.

Washington, June 26.—Preliminary sailing orders have been issued by Rear Admiral Pittsbury, Acting Secretary of the Navy, to Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, for the second cruise of the battle ships on their way around the world. It is expected the ships will lift anchor at sunrise, July 7.

Mrs. Gould Asks Divorce.

New York, June 26.—Papers in a suit for absolute divorce were served on Frank J. Gould Wednesday at the instance of his wife, who was formerly Miss Helen Kelly. The service was made in Mr. Gould's office as he was about to go out for luncheon. He expressed no surprise.

Minnesota Tornado Kills Child.

Mountain Lake, Minn., June 26.—A tornado passed about five miles northwest of here Tuesday night, demolishing at least a dozen farm buildings. M. C. Klassen, arriving home, found his wife covered with planks and boards and their youngest child crushed to death.

Old Baseball Player Dies.

Des Moines, Ia., June 26.—William F. Traftey, once manager of the Baltimore team and manager of the Des Moines team in 1880, when they made a world's record of 25 games won in succession, died here Wednesday of tuberculosis, aged 48 years.

In Loving Remembrance.

As the shadows of night were gathering fast, the angel of death crept stealthily by and flapped his dark wings o'er the aged form of Mr. James P. Sullenger, April 24th 1908.

He was born June 17th 1840 and was a useful and honored citizen of the neighborhood in which he lived. He was a member of the Christian church, at Liberty Grove and will be greatly missed, for he was always present.

He was the son of old Dr. Sullenger, the husband of Miss Harriet Debout, and the father of thirteen children three of whom are dead.

Grandfather had entered the evening of his life, the golden sunset clouds were gathering in the sky and casting their beautiful light about his aged form as he trudged up the rugged mountain of life, but, alas! how soon the storm in all its fury arose and the dark, angry clouds did hide the peaceful sunset from our view, then when his awful work was finished passed on leaving us with downcast eyes and bleeding hearts to view the sickening sight of his destruction.

But since in his grave he lies asleep, and the past cannot be undone we can only hope to meet him in a better world above.

It is a relief to think, we shall sleep, but not forever.

There will be a glorious dawn, we shall meet to part never on the resurrection morn. But still, it is so hard to part from those that we love and know that their lives here on earth are spent.

God knoweth best and he has taken his weariest servant home.

To the heart-broken wife and children, please take comfort in believing that the spirit of your departed husband and father is commended to the gracious tender care of Him who does all things well, and when your lives on earth are ended and the golden gates are thrown wide may the angels guide your foot steps to your precious loved one's side.

A loved one from our home is gone

The death angel visited the home of William J. King at Fair View, Ill., June 9th, 1908, and taken away his darling wife and infant son. Their remains were brought back home and laid to rest in the Union graveyard by her father, Mr. Jap Millikan, who died several years ago.

Sophia Millikan King was born April 2nd, 1886, she being twenty-two years two months and seven days old. Departed this life June 9th, 1908. She was married to William King, August 24th, 1907, by Rev. R. A. LaRue. She professed faith in Christ Oct. 1906 and joined the Baptist church at Union where she was laid to await the resurrection morn. She leaves besides her husband, to mourn her loss, her mother, Mrs. J. H. Bateman, three brothers, Wallace, Roy and Ray and three sisters, Mrs. Leslie Davidson, Minnie and Cordie and a host of relatives and friends.

EXPRESSED DESIRE FOR JAMES.

Washington, July 7.—In connection with the reports from Denver to-day that the indications are that Ollie James may be the nominee to the vice presidency, it is recalled that Mr. Bryan told a close friend in this city last spring that there was no man with whom he would rather be on the ticket than Mr. James. The two have been the closest friends for years, and Mr. James is always looked upon as the mouthpiece of Mr. Bryan on the floor of the House.

Notice Had Been Served by Sheriff On Troops to Leave County at Once.

Augusta, Ky., July 8.—Maj. Jno. A. Webb, in command of the State Guards in Bracken county, has moved his troops from camp Gen. Williams, at Brooksville, to Fourth St., Augusta. Sheriff Cummins served notice on Maj. Webb Monday that there was no necessity of the troops being in the county and for him to leave at once. Maj. Webb gives as his reasons for leaving the camp, at Brooksville, the scarcity of water.

Citizens as a rule are very much opposed to the troops locating in Augusta. Maj. Webb has forty-five men with twenty-five horses in his command.

Cause And Effect.

EDITOR RECORD-PRESS.

Dear Sir:—Please allow me space in your paper to express my sympathy for those who are involved in the momentous question; Night Riding, Soldiers, the Judge and etc.

This is a time that every man should carefully weigh his ideas before ex pressing them, and deal out justice and the "Golden Rule" to every man.

I want to say in the out-set that our County Judge has my heartfelt sympathy, for the reason that he was unfortunate enough to be judge in, it seems, the most trying times that Crittenden county has ever seen.

It does seem that under the existing circumstances that Crittenden county,

the State of Kentucky, the Nation,

and even all the World, all that claims to be civilized, are in deplorable condition.

And we are left, each of us, to say what is the cause, bringing about these conditions.

Now, back to the subject.—We are bound to admit that there is always a cause, whether just or unjust, for every action performed by man or men and undoubtedly, the judge acted on his own impulse as to the soldiers, and strictly within the bounds of the civil law.

As to the soldiers they don't need very much sympathy for they are getting a little money for their service or a promise at least when the state gets the money.

Now as to the guilt or innocence of those who are accused of "Night

Riding" I am not prepared to say, but I do say, that if a man is arrested

whether guilty or not, he is in trouble.

So any man in trouble has my heart-felt sympathy.

Not claiming that those who have been arranged to be the people who did the raiding, but undoubtedly whoever they were, even felt that they had a cause to do as they did, whether just or unjust it may be. No doubt they thought they were working under the moral law, or to make good their marriage vows.

So let us reflect upon the past and see if our folly has not cost us a great deal more than we will ever recover.

Who is to blame for existing circumstances in this county? It is the people who are to be governed, who have been doing the voting, or, in other words, those who have been having the voting done.

Now let us reflect upon the past and

deal more than we will ever recover.

called to his reward leaving for her solace a little girl, Ethel, who has grown to womanhood.

She was next married to W. I. Tabor on Oct., 9th, 1902, and of this union a son and daughter survive to cheer the bereaved husband.

She was deprived of her mother when Amanda was very young, and her venerable father, James Matthews was called home at the ripe age of 83.
Three brothers and two sisters survive her: W. H. Matthews, of Creston, Ill., John A., of Bordley Ky., Jas. L., of Lukas, Ky., Elizabeth McDowell, Creswell, Ky., and Eliza F. Matthews wife of G. W.
Matthews, this county.

Although many weeks have come and gone since her departure it seems but yesterday that she went, so deeply did her amiability, companionship and never dying devotion to family and friends impress all that these lovely traits still linger, and it seems that we only dream.

The writer cherished her as a dear school mate kind and gentle to all,
and these estimable qualities expanded as she grew into womanhood.
A more devoted wife and mother never lived. She was a devoted member of the Caldwell Springs Baptist church.

It was hard indeed to reconcile family and friends to their loss but we should know that the "Lord doth all things well" and that we shall one day see that once wasted form, clothed in youth and beauty with the circling halo of immortality glorious to behold. She now beckons us to come and live with the angels, with whom she sings the glorious hosannas unto Christ our king.

Then let us meet her "over there."

Fish Washes his Hands off of Illinois Central Railroad.

Chicago, June 25.—The Inter-Ocean today says.

Within the last few weeks Stuyvesant
Fish, former president of the I.
C. railroad, is said to have sold approximately 10,000 shares of his Illinois Central holdings. With the liquidation of the balance of his holdings—matter of 2,500 shares
—which, it is presumed, will soon take place, he will discontinue his interest in the road he began to build thirty years ago, and over whose destinies for twenty years he presided as president.

The Fish connection with Illinois Central affairs, now believed to be drawing to a close, covers a remarkable period in the railroad history of country, and in that period no figure was more conspicuous than Stuyvesant Fish. The picturesque and long-drawn-out fight waged against him by Edward A. Harriman for the control of the Illinois Central, defeat in which is apparently acknowledged with the sale of stock, was only a type of the battles he fought thru three decades.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Marion People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly--mysteriously.

But nature always warns you.
Notice the kidney secretions.
See if the color is unhealthy
If there are settling and sediment, Passages frequent, scanty, painful.

It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work for Marion.

Coleman Byford, living in Marion, Kentucky, says "I cannot express my gratitude for the beneficial results I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When I began their use I was confined to my bed on account of a weak and lame back and was forced to be assisted to a sitting position before I was able to arise to eat. I had to pass the kidney secretions every little while at night and there was a burning, smarting sensation accompanying them. I lived in Owensboro at the time and the doctors attending me gave me little hope of ever getting better. Some years before I had heard my mother say that Doan's Kidney Pills had cured her, and thinking they might help me, I procured them at Haynes & Taylor's drug store. Before I had taken the contents of the first box I improved and continued their use until I had taken four boxes when I was as well as at any time in my life. I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly."
